WELCOME TO TOWN

Your First Day in Golden Ridge

Think of this Visitor Pass as your first easy stroll through town: a few must-see places, one favorite diner recipe, a handful of local rules, and the best way into the full Reader Vault.

Bridger's Diner	Start here. Order coffee, say yes to pie, and remember that if Dottie asks a question, she may already have decided the answer.
Mason Ridge Ranch	The land, the family, and the heart of more than one Golden Ridge love story.
The Overlook	Go at sunset. The whole valley opens below you, and suddenly it makes sense why people keep coming back.
Sycamore Lane	A quiet stretch of town where porches matter, repairs become conversations, and second chances tend to find you.
Main Street	Mercer's Feed & Seed, Davis's Hardware, diner gossip, and the small routines that make Golden Ridge feel lived in.

Want the complete town guide, the full illustrated map, bonus stories, and more? That's what the Harper Coast Reader Vault is for.

A TASTE OF TOWN

Dottie's Morning Cinnamon Rolls

A little sample from Bridger's Diner. These are the kind of rolls that disappear before the second pot of coffee is finished.

- 1 cup whole milk, warmed
- 2¼ tsp active dry yeast
- ■ cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs, room temperature
- 6 tbsp softened butter
- 4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp fine salt
- Filling: 6 tbsp soft butter, ¾ cup brown sugar, 2 tbsp cinnamon
- Icing: 4 oz cream cheese, ¼ cup butter, 1 cup powdered sugar, vanilla, splash of milk

1. Stir the warm milk, yeast, and a spoonful of sugar. Let it foam for about 5 minutes.
2. Add the remaining sugar, eggs, butter, flour, and salt. Knead until smooth and slightly tacky.
3. Let the dough rise until doubled, about 1 hour.
4. Roll into a rectangle, spread with butter, and scatter the brown sugar and cinnamon evenly.
5. Roll up, cut into 12 pieces, and place in a buttered pan. Let rise again until puffed.
6. Bake at 375°F for 20–23 minutes, then spread the cream-cheese icing over the warm rolls.

“Cook for people. It matters more than impressing them.” — Dottie Bridger

LOCAL WISDOM

Five Rules of Golden Ridge

Nobody officially wrote these down. They simply became true.

1. Wave at every truck.

Even if you don't know the driver yet, chances are you will.

2. If Dottie offers pie, say yes.

This is not really a suggestion. It is sound local policy.

3. The weather report is a rumor. The ridgeline is a fact.

If the mountains say snow, believe the mountains.

4. Casseroles are a form of currency.

Arrivals, departures, grief, roof trouble—there is a casserole for each of them.

5. If you don't know what to do, show up.

In Golden Ridge, showing up is nine tenths of everything.
